I would like to thank Dr Grant Phillipson, chief historian at the Waitangi Tribunal for his assistance in making part 2 of this report possible. I would also like to thank Bruce Stirling and David Armstrong of the Crown Forestry Rental Trust for allowing me the flexibility to fit part two of the report into a few weeks between commitments for the Trust. Reference staff at National Archives Wellington assisted with research - of land purchase files in particular - and staff at the office of the Maori Trustee were helpful in making their files available. I am also grateful for the assistance of Victoria University's Treaty of Waitangi Research Unit (TOWRU) at the Stout Research Centre, where this research was conducted. Maureen West assisted with useful bibliographical searches and with tidying up the final report. Jenny Skinner searched file lists and provided a valuable appraisal of Maori land purchase files from 1900 to 1930. Not least, the Director of TOWRU, Dr Richard Hill has provided facilities, research contacts, encouragement and the opportunity to discuss ideas. I am most grateful for all the assistance provided while I take full responsibility for the report and any errors it may contain.
