

LIST OF CONTENTS

Part i: The Land Claims Commission Process

Chapter 1: Introduction	3
Report organisation 3; Why have old land claims never been satisfactorily investigated? 5; The limitations of this report 7; The relationship between old land claims and subsequent Crown purchases 8
Chapter 2: The Land Claims Commission Process	11
Crown presumptive rights 11; Treaty references to pre-Treaty transactions 12; The Land Claims Commission's legislative framework 14; Notification procedures 17; The role of the protectorate 19; Commissioners' qualifications and administrative support 21; Difficulties confronting commissioners 22; Protectorate and survey reports 24; Hearing procedures 26; Spain's hearing procedures 28; Clarke's conception of 'native title' 31; FitzRoy's intervention 33; Grey's intervention 36; The Land Claims Settlement Act 1856 40; Survey requirements 42; Bell's credentials and hearings 44; The 'Maori side of the story' 47; The consistency test 51; Scrip land 55; Surplus land 58; Reserves 64; What were Maori left with? 73; Conclusion 75

Part ii: Case Studies

Chapter 3: Case Study: The Fairburn Purchase	79
Chapter 4: Case Study: The William Webster Claims	99
Chapter 5: Case Study: Hokianga Scrip Claims	125
Chapter 6: Case Study: The McCaskills at Hikutaia	145
Chapter 7: Conclusion	169

Part iii: The Crown's Surplus in the New Zealand Company's Purchase

Chapter 8: The Crown's Surplus in the New Zealand Company's Purchases ...	173
Introduction 173; The land claims inquiry in the New Zealand Company districts 174; The initial transactions: Port Nicholson 175; The initial transactions: Wanganui 177; The initial transactions: Kapiti 178; The initial transactions: Queen Charlotte 180; The initial transactions: Taranaki 181; The Crown's pledges bought peaceful possession for the company 183; The New Zealand Company's February 1841 royal charter 185; The surplus lands in the 1842–44 New Zealand Company arbitrations 189; The land claims inquiry during the arbitration 193; The arbitration under Shortland: February–May 1843 197; The arbitrations and settlements under FitzRoy 198;

Contents

Chapter 8: The Crown's Surplus—continued

Paying compensation and signing deeds of release: Port Nicholson 202; Paying compensation and signing deeds of release: Manawatu 203; Paying compensation and signing deeds of release: Wanganui 204; Paying compensation and signing deeds of release: New Plymouth 205; A new purchase under FitzRoy's waiver of pre-emption for the company: Otakou 206; Paying compensation and signing deeds of release: Nelson–Wairau 207; The 1845 interregnum 208; Stanley and Gladstone's instructions to Grey 211; Grey's initial steps in the company's settlements 217; Grey's return to the company districts: February–April 1847 221; Grey at Porirua and Wairau under Stanley's arrangements 225; A company–Crown joint venture: 1847–50 230; First reactions to the Loan Act: late 1847 negotiations and grants 236; Grey's grants at Port Nicholson and Porirua: January 1848 237; New instructions and negotiations: March–November 1848 239; The Crown buys the company's estate and resumes its own surplus: 1850 243

Part iv: Appendix and Tables

Appendix: Methodology and Tabular Summaries of Old Land Claims 247

LIST OF FIGURES

Fig 1: Location map	v
Fig 2: Whakaneke and Pakaraka	50
Fig 3: Fairburn's Tamaki claim	68
Fig 4: Busby's Waitangi grant	72
Fig 5: Boundaries of Fairburn purchase	81
Fig 6: Webster's Piako claims	112
Fig 7: Boundaries of Webster's Piako claim and subsequent Crown purchases until 1910	116
Fig 8: Hokianga Harbour and its main tributaries	130
Fig 9: William White's Orira claim, olc 519	138
Fig 10: Boundaries of Lachlan McCaskill's Hikutaia claims with granted subdivisions	147
Fig 11: Physical and cultural features of the land	153
Fig 12: Extent of granted area subsequently disputed by Herewini Te Rangai	153
Fig 13: 1842 claims based on 1839 transactions	179
Fig 14: 1842–44 lands for selection or under arbitration	194
Fig 15: 1845 Crown sanctioned partial purchases	218
Fig 16: 1846–50 Crown sanctioned purchase completions	242
Fig 17: Rangahaua Whanui districts	246

Figure 1: Location map – areas with old land claims

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

AIM	Auckland Institute and Museum
AJHR	Appendices to the Journals of the House of Representatives
APL	Auckland Public Library, Auckland
app	appendix
ATL	Alexander Turnbull Library, Wellington
BPD	British Parliamentary Debates
BPP	British Parliamentary Papers: Colonies New Zealand (17 vols, Shannon, Irish University Press, 1968–1969)
corres	correspondence
CMS	Church Missionary Society
DNZB	Dictionary of New Zealand Biography
doc	document
encl	enclosed
G	Governor series, National Archives, Wellington
IA	Internal Affairs series, National Archives, Wellington
jnr	junior
LINZ	Land Information New Zealand
MA	Maori Affairs series, National Archives, Wellington
NA	National Archives
NLC	Native Land Court
NUG	New Ulster Gazette
NZC	New Zealand Company
OLC	Old Land Claims/old land claims series at National Archives, Wellington
p	page
pt	part
ROD	Record of Documents
snr	senior
s	section (of an Act)
sess	session

PART I

The Land Claims Commission Process

